General Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

I regret very much the necessity of writing this letter concerning an unpaid monetary claim that I have outstanding against your organization. The claim is based on a period of association with the Agency while on active duty with the United States Air Force. The entire matter should be part of the records of the SE division and I consider it inappropriate to go into specific details in a letter.

Briefly, the claim is based on a period of TDY with the Agency in Washington during the week of 11-19 April 1955 just subsequent to my discharge from the United States Air Force. During this time the claim was discussed with a  who admitted the justness of the claim and assured me of payment. This was approximately six months ago and despite several letters and phone calls I still have not received the money due me.

Very frankly, I am at a loss to understand why I have not received payment and to what further course of action to adopt to settle the matter. Because of the classified nature of the situation I hesitate seeking the advice of any outside party or instigating legal action of any kind. I have even considered seeking the aid of my congressman but have no desire to do so if there is any other way that the matter can be settled.

I will appreciate hearing from you as to what possible action can be taken on my part to receive immediate payment. I will take no further action pending your prompt reply to this letter of inquiry. Hoping to hear from you soon, I am,

Very truly yours,
